

1 and consequently we determined to use the constitutional
2 route despite the language and the length.

3 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Mentzer.

4 DELEGATE MENTZER: But the things in the
5 schedule have the full force of the constitution, do they 6 not?

7 DELEGATE GALLAGHER: Yes, they do, but again
8 we are not certain, as I have said before, that the B&O
9 is the only corporation involved. This is really a
10 matter of principle, although it appears to apply to 11 an individual case, and we simply felt that we didn't want
12 to confer some less than constitutional status, and we 13 considered putting it in the transitional legislation and 14 decided we ought not to.

15 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Willis, do you have
16 a question?

17 DELEGATE WILLIS: A point of personal privilege,
18 Mr. Chairman.

19 THE CHAIRMAN: State the privilege.

20 DELEGATE WILLIS: I would like to announce to 21 the group that in the balcony in the rear are 119 students
